

Your Economic Development Partner

The Washington DC Economic Partnership (WDCEP) is a nonprofit, public-private partnership at the core of economic development in Washington, DC. We connect national and international corporations to the public and private sector to advance sustainable and inclusive economic development.

We can support your business relocation to and growth in Washington, DC in a variety of ways:

- Assist with your real estate and site selection needs
- Connect you directly to local government, community organizations, and private sector leaders
- Provide key insights from local C-Suite executives
- Customize community tours
- Develop key market intelligence and custom research
- Unlock access to financial incentives, such as the Vitality Fund

Vitality Fund

The Vitality Fund is a performance-based, discretionary grant created, administered, and funded by the Office of the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Development (DMPED) designed as an incentive to help businesses relocate to and grow in Washington, DC.

Minimum eligibility requirements include:

- 7,000 SF of Office Space
