

CALL FOR FUND MANAGERS DC VENTURE CAPITAL FUND

The DC Venture Capital Fund will utilize more than 26 million dollars to make equity investments in pre-seed, seed, and early-stage tech companies located in Washington DC. Lead by K Street Capital, the search is underway for managers to oversee and distribute funds. Learn more about this transformative program below.

INTERESTED? SCAN HERE!

UPCOMING INFO SESSIONS

Information sessions with DMPED, the U.S. Treasury, and K Street Capital will be held on:

- January 21th
- March 18th
- May 13th

DMPED and K Street Capital will publish the formal application to become a SSBCI fund manager in Q1 of 2025.

Learn more at www.dmped.dc.gov and www.kstreet.vc

FUND MANAGER REQUIREMENTS

- Must be a private financial organization including a partnership, corporation, trust, limited liability company, or a consortium. Organizations can be a for profit or nonprofit but must have its primary activity be focused on the investment of capital into businesses
- Must have a management team with significant experience in making portfolio investments
- Must be able to demonstrate a track record of positive returns on investment
- Must have the ability to raise a 1:1 private match for all SSBCI funds
- Offer one or more financing vehicle to support investible companies
- A track record of building investment pipelines
- Experience underwriting deals and creating processes for conducting due diligence on potential investees, monitoring performance, and providing services to portfolio companies